

The Hamburger Presentation Model

A hamburger has three main parts: a top bun, the meat, and the bottom bun. Presentations also have three main parts: an introduction, a body, and a conclusion.

Introduction: Introduce Topic

- Attention Getter
- Background
- 3 Main Ideas

Body: The information and details about the topic

Main Idea One

- 2-3 Supporting statements or details

Main Idea Two

- 2-3 Supporting statements or details

Main Idea Three

- 2-3 Supporting statements or details

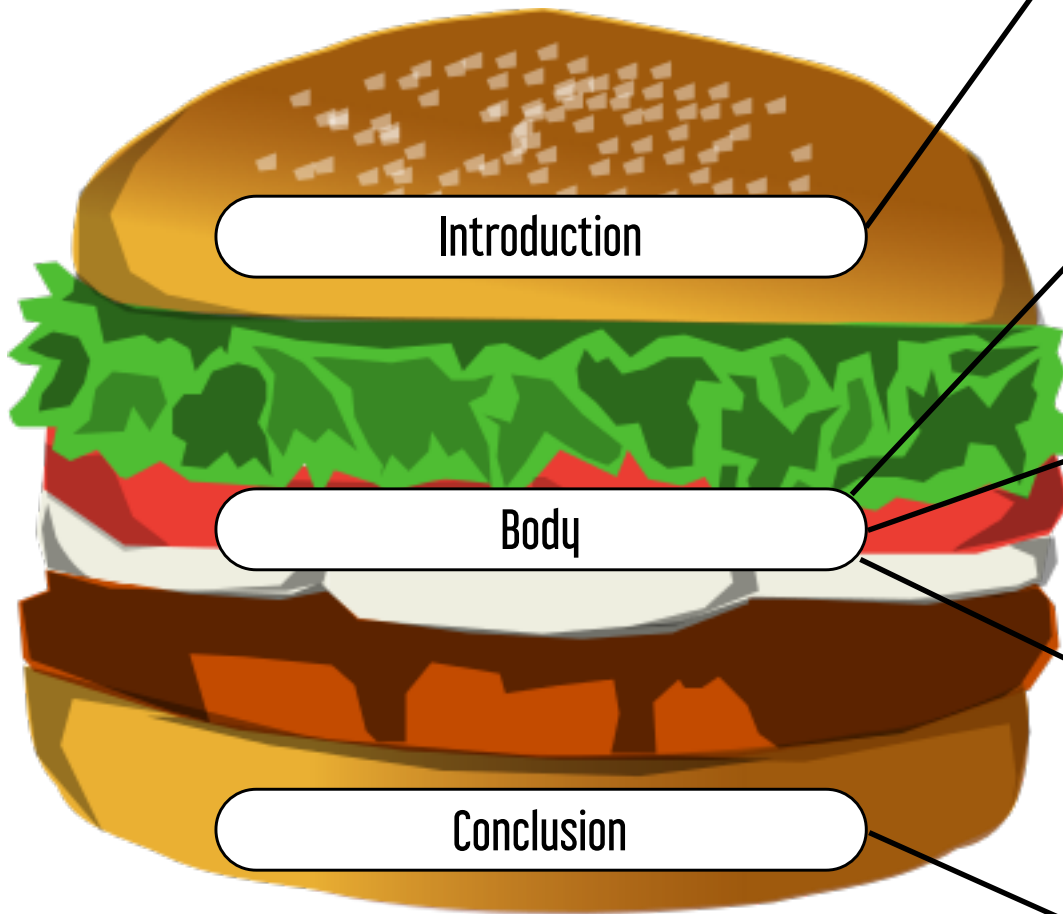

Conclusion: Summarize Presentation

- 3 Main Ideas
- Significance (Why does it matter?)
- Clincher or call to action

To “dress up” the hamburger, we use lettuce, tomatoes, pickles, onions, and condiments. Similarly, we can “dress up” our presentations with descriptive words.

Topic: My Family

My brothers are a bunch of hooligans but they are my family. Today, I wanted to give a glimpse of who's in my immediate family, where we live, and our favorite things to do.

Main Idea: Who is in my family

There are six people in my family: my mom, my dad, me, and my three brothers, Stephen, David, and Isaac. Stephen and David are older than me, and Isaac is my little brother. We also have two dogs named Teeny and Daisy.

Main Idea: Where we live

We moved to our farm here in Tennessee when I was one year old. We live on 56 acres where our neighbors run their cattle. We have a big red barn and a place we call "Little House in the Holler" where we operate our family business.

Main Idea: Our favorite things to do

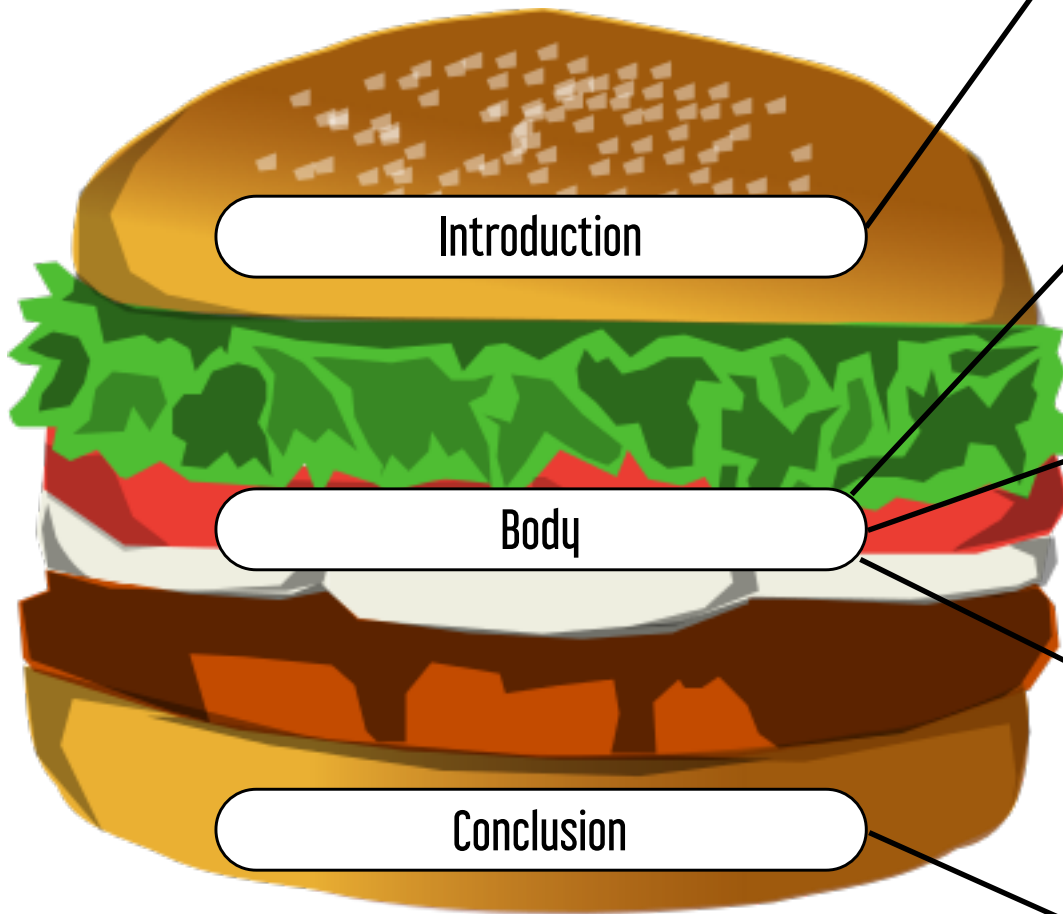

Our family enjoys campfires, nature walks, and stargazing. We love to read, to study the Bible together, and to travel. We have visited the 48 continental United States and hope to one day see Alaska and Hawaii.

That's just a little bit about my family, where we live, and our favorite things.

Even though my brothers are a bunch of hooligans, they are my best friends and they are part of who I am. Any questions?
