MISSION:

Join us on a top secret mission.
Grab your spy gear and undercover munition.
Mystery case files state some sweets have been taken
By someone who loves to spend her time bakin.'
Levi says, "Help with this evil plot!
My birthday's at stake, as sweets we've not got!"
No doubt our group of expert secret code-crackers
Are bound to find the icing hijacker!

#1: No time to bask in a vain celebration.
First check under the five-senses station.

#2: Homemade elephants of clay with grass just behind.
Look there perhaps maybe the hijacker you'll find.

#3: Perhaps she is hidden underneath the rocking chair or the stool?
Or how about the back porch where we keep our drinks cool?

#4: She sometimes heats up the sweets that she saves,
Nukes 'em to steamin' with these teeny-tiny-waves.

#5: We've learned a bit about General Robert E Lee,
Check a book in the Book Bin, maybe there she will be.

#6: The sweets may be hidden with keys black and white,
If you play do-re-mi, you just might get this right!

#7: Why oh why would the icing she take?
Perhaps she's hiding in the place where we bake!
